1) PROCESS - OVERVIEW

1. A non refundable bidder registration fee and payment of a bidder security deposit is required to bid and both the bidder registration fee and bidder security deposit must be authorised in advance of the Online Auction by debit card / credit card or paid in advance by bank transfer. A bidder security deposit of €4,500 is required for all properties. A bidder security deposit greater than €4,500 may, at the sole discretion of iamsold, be required for properties with higher capital values. Where a bidder security deposit above €4,500 is required the applicable security amount will be displayed on the website. If paying by card, bidders will be required to input their card details once they have selected to register for the property. Funds from cards will be taken on a "pre-authorised" basis and such pre-authorisation will be refreshed every 7 days. If you are the successful bidder the pre-authorised security payment is captured at that point. Any bidder security deposits received by bank transfer shall be refunded to the unsuccessful bidders post auction. All pre-authorisation amounts for the unsuccessful bidders are also released post auction. The bidder security deposit can be pre-authorised or paid after you have registered with us but must be pre-authorised or paid in cleared funds to Iamsold client account prior to bidding on the Online Auction.
2. A non-refundable registration fee of €50 (including VAT) must be paid by all bidders who wish to participate in the Online Auction for each property. The registration fee will only be refundable in circumstances where the property (that you have registered to bid on) is withdrawn from the Online Auction. The registration fee must be paid at the same time that you pay your bidder security deposit. A non refundable registration fee of €50 is payable per property you wish to bid on.
3. At registration on iamsold.ie or by signing a bidding form you will be required to confirm your acceptance that this is a sale by auction of property. By registering to bid via iamsold.ie or by signing a bidding form for the Lot, the bidder confirms they will become legally bound by the terms and conditions herein applicable to a Lot from the moment they register and place a bid on the Lot or by signing a bidding form for the Lot.
4. At bid registration via iamsold.ie or by signing the bidding form you will also be required to authorise iamsold to sign a legally binding Contract for Sale relating to the sale of the property on your behalf on the conclusion of the Online Auction or on acceptance of your bid by the vendor.

5. Once registration is approved by iamsold, and the bidder security deposit has been paid, registrants can submit bids by confirming their Bid amount and clicking the "confirm & place bid" button on the Lot page for each property or by submitting a "allow automatic bidding with a maximum bid" (if this option is available) once the bidding period opens for that Lot.
6. iamsold will use reasonable endeavors to move a bidder security deposit from one Lot to another Lot if requested by a bidder. A request to move a bidder security can only be actioned once the time period for the original Lot you registered for has closed. An email must be sent to accounts@iam-sold.ie requesting that your bidder security is moved from Lot X to Lot Y. iamsold accept no responsibility whatsoever to bidders if we are unable to move a bidder security deposit from one Lot to another as per a bidder request. iamsold may be unable to move bidder security deposits if, for example, closing times for Lots are too close together or during busy periods.
7. The minimum bidding increment is set by iamsold before the online auction commences. The standard minimum bid amount is €500, however may be higher for higher value lots. Bidders have the option to increase these increments to make a higher bid if they wish.

The maximum bid increment allowable is 25% or less above the current bid or the starting bid price. Example, if the current bid or starting bid price is €100,000, your maximum bid increment allowable will be to €125,000. This is to safeguard bidders placing excessive bids in error. All bids placed within the 25% maximum bid increment range will be counted as a valid bid even if the bidder claims they have placed that bid in error after or during the auction period.

If a bidder waits until the last seconds of an online auction to place an intended bid, they are putting themselves at high risk of not being able to submit a bid in time. Bidders use this risky strategy at their own risk as once the auction timer closes no further bids can be accepted and the property will be sold to the highest valid bid (if above the agreed reserve price) placed during the auction period

8. If connectivity issues or other IT issues are experienced by the bidder during the course of the Online Auction, the bidder accepts that no liability for such issues shall attach to iamsold or to the Vendor. The bidder further accepts that iamsold decision is final in all such matters.
9. You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. You may adjust a maximum bid entered (on an upwards only basis) i.e. situations where the current bidding is still below your submitted maximum bid amount.
10. Unless otherwise stated in the Special Conditions of the Contract for Sale provided for the lot or on the auction website the minimum contract deposit we accept will be for the greater of €6,500 or 10% of the sale price. Cash or cheque deposits are not acceptable.

N.B. - ALL DEPOSITS MUST BE PAID IN EUROS

11. All parties will be legally bound under the Contract for Sale when the vendor instructs iamsold to accept a bid prior to the conclusion of online auction and iamsold notify the bidder in writing OR bidding period closes and the Purchaser's bid is (by operation of the website) accepted by the auctioneers on behalf of the Vendor as being the highest valid bid for the relevant Lot at that time which has met or exceeded the vendors reserve price.

Your bidder security deposit immediately becomes non-refundable if you make the successful bid for a property on the Online Auction.

12. Your bidder security deposit shall be used as a part payment towards the contract deposit payable as Agent to the Auctioneers, unless stated otherwise.
13. Successful bidders must pay the balance of the 10% deposit (if applicable) within two business days (48 hours) of the Lot closing. This can be paid by Debit Card, Bank Draft (made out to iamsold) or by same day Bank Transfer.
14. If you are successful, or not, you will be notified by email after the Lot closes...
15. If you are the successful bidder for a lot and in accordance with the authority you provided on registration via iamsold.ie or by signing a bidding form. iamsold will sign legally binding contracts relating to the sale of the property on your behalf as Purchaser on conclusion of the Online Auction or on acceptance of your bid by the vendor.
16. Once the Contract for Sale for the lot has been signed on behalf of both parties, one part of the executed Contract for Sale will be sent to the solicitors for the Vendor and one part to solicitor for the Purchaser by Post.
17. The closing period allowed from the signing of the Contract for Sale is 28 days, unless stated or agreed otherwise.
18. You are at risk of losing the bidder security deposit or the 10% deposit you have paid on a Lot, and at risk of the Vendors taking legal action against you for breach of contract, if you fail to complete your purchase of the Lot within the closing period. (or any extended closing period agreed between the parties)
19. If you wish to bid on more than one Lot, you will need to pay a separate bidder security deposit for each Lot.
20. If you are not the successful party your bidder security deposit will be transferred in full from iamsold client account to the bidders nominated bank account within 5 business days of the Online Auction concluding or from the time we are in receipt of your correct bank account details i.e. IBAN, account name and bank name.
21. The Addendum is an important document which provides details of corrections to the particulars and/or the Special Conditions of the Contract for Sale.
22. All bidders are deemed to have read the Addendum whether they have actually done so or not.

2) PROCESS SUMMARY - GENERAL

Legal matters in Ireland can be complex and so these notes, the Online Auction Conduct Conditions, together with any other conditions, documents or matters affecting the lot you are interested in should be read and considered carefully. Whilst the Vendors of the lots described in this catalogue have used reasonable efforts to ensure that Lots are correctly described, we strongly recommend that you appoint professional advisers including independent legal advisers and arrange for them to consider and advise you on aspects of your intended purchase.

Prior to submitting an offer you must review the contract for sale and supporting title documentation ("legal documents"). The legal documents for the property can be viewed on our website and are non-negotiable. It is your responsibility to carry out your own due diligence and investigate all matters relating to the property that you are interested in purchasing, including, without limitation, legal matters, physical condition and all other aspects. All offers you make should be based solely on your independent due diligence. It will be assumed that you have read and considered all relevant documents for the property you are interested in on or before bidding on the Online Auction and that you have shown them to your professional advisers and have taken their professional advice before bidding.

CHANGES TO THIS DOCUMENT

The contents of this document may be changed from time to time. As a result, as well as being asked to confirm acceptance of these terms and conditions when you first register to bid on our website, you may also be asked to reconfirm your acceptance (with reference to the latest version of this document then published on this website) on future visits to this website, in particular prior to participation in any specific Online Auction.

IMPORTANT NOTE - IF YOU ARE NOT THE INTENDED PURCHASER

If you, as the person using our website, participate in any Online Auction on behalf of another person (as the intended Purchaser of a particular property or Lot, the legal effect of you doing so is as follows:-

- You will be responsible, in your own name and not simply as agent for a third party Purchaser, for ensuring compliance with all obligations in this Online Auction terms and conditions document relating to use of this website and/or participation as a bidder in any Online Auction.
- You must ensure that you have all necessary authority to act on behalf of, and contractually bind and commit, the relevant Purchaser to all obligations set out or referred to in this Online Auction terms and conditions document which expressly or by implication apply to Purchasers. This includes authority to authorise us, the auctioneers, to enter into a legally binding contract for sale on behalf of the relevant Purchaser where you successfully bid for a property on the Purchasers behalf.
- For any reason the person identified by you as being the (intended) purchaser fails to comply with any obligations which expressly or by implication apply to the purchaser (including any situation in which the (intended) Purchaser disputes your authority to act and/or contract on its behalf for these purposes), you will be responsible to us for any loss we or any Vendor suffers as a result of that failure. This includes any failure to comply with obligations relating to the purchase of any property for which you successfully bid via an Online Auction.

LEGAL DOCUMENTS

If you wish to receive legal documents and/or if you have detailed legal enquiries in respect of any Lot, please contact the relevant Vendor's Solicitor, details of who appear on the individual Lot pages. Please contact the iamsold if you wish to confirm the Vendors solicitors contact details.

Copies of those legal documents that are produced to us will be available to read online and/or to download. Please go to our website www.iamsold.ie or associated websites for further details.

PURCHASER'S GUIDE TO AUCTIONS

If you are unfamiliar with buying at an Online Auction, please read the FAQ's and Buyers Guides available on our websites.

We sell each Lot on the basis that prospective Purchasers have made all their enquiries and are satisfied, or not as the case may be, as a result of such enquiries and that they have read the Notices on our website and the terms and conditions herein and fully understand their content.

PLEASE NOTE: If you still have a Question on your mind in respect of any of the Lots within the catalogue please contact a representative of the Auctioneers who will do his or her best to obtain an answer for you prior to the Online Auction. If you are not sure which Lot you are bidding for please do not bid.

REGISTRATION & BIDDING

In order to be able to register for and bid on the Online Auction, you must first create an iamsold Online Auction account at www.iamsold.ie or associated website. Once this is done you can sign in with your username (email address) and password and then subsequently register for the particular property you wish to bid on.

As part of the registration process all bidders will be required to provide their contact information (including name and address, email address and telephone number), the name of the purchaser, (please note that you must specifically name the person or organisation that is to be the purchaser of the Lot as Lots cannot be Transferred to an unnamed Purchaser and any references to 'nominees', 'associates' or similar are unacceptable).

A registration fee of €50 must be paid by all bidders who wish to participate in the Online Auction of a particular lot. The registration fee will on be refundable in circumstances where the property (that you have registered to bid on) is withdrawn from the Online Auction. A nonrefundable €50 registration fee is payable per lot you wish to bid on.

You will be required to upload a copy of photo identification such as your passport or driving license and, in addition, upload proof of your address such as a utility bill or bank statement (dated within the last 3 months).

The privacy policy of iamsold, which sets out the terms on which they process any personal data collected from you, or that you provide to them, is contained on their website or available upon request.

You are required to pay your bidder security deposit to partake in an Online Auction. The standard bidder security deposit is €4,500 per lot you wish to bid on. However, the bidder security deposit payable can vary and will be stated when registering to bid on a particular lot.

You will also be required to authorise iamsold to sign legally binding contracts for the sale of the property on your behalf or, if applicable, on behalf of the intended Purchaser.

Once the above is done iamsold will review your registration and you will be notified when your registration is approved.

Once your bidder security deposit and registration is approved by iamsold and the bidding period has opened for the Lot you are interested in, successful registrants can submit a bid by entering a bid amount and clicking the "Confirm & Place Bid" button on the Property page on our website. On some lots "Automatic Bidding with a maximum Bid" will be available to allow bidders to select a maximum bid and the website will place bids on the bidders behalf automatically up to the maximum bid amount the bidder has nominated.

The bidding increments will be set by iamsold on a per lot basis. The standard minimum bid increment is €500 unless stated otherwise.

The maximum bid increment allowable is 25% or less above the current bid or the starting bid price. Example, if the current bid or starting bid price is €100,000, your maximum bid increment allowable will be to €125,000. This is to safeguard bidders placing excessive bids in error. All bids placed within the 25% maximum bid increment range will be counted as a valid bid even if the bidder states they have placed that bid in error after or during the auction period.

If a bidder waits until the last seconds of an online auction to place an intended bid, they are putting themselves at high risk of not being able to submit a bid in time. Bidders use this risky strategy at their own risk as once the auction timer closes no further bids can be accepted and the property will be sold to the highest valid bid (if above the agreed reserve price) placed during the auction period.

The designated closing time is the initial closing time for the property and can be seen on the property details page on our website. If a bid is placed within the final 2 minutes of the designated closing time, the auction end time will automatically reset back to 2 minutes remaining on the online auction. This is known as an extension. There is no limit to the number of possible extensions.

You cannot cancel a bid once it has been submitted. If you are successful, or not, you will be notified by email after the bidding for the Property closes by iamsold.

iamsold acting as Agent for the vendor reserves the right to accept a bid prior to the end of the Online Auction period. Where a vendor instructs iamsold to accept a bid prior to the end of the Online Auction period iamsold will notify the successful bidder in writing of acceptance of their offer and sign the Contracts for Sale on behalf of the vendor and the successful bidder as per the authorities provided. Both parties will then be legally bound under the Contract for Sale.

iamsold acting as Agent for the vendor reserves the right to withdraw a Lot out of Online Auction without notice to the registered bidders.

iamsold decision about any dispute in relation to an Online Auction for a Lot is final.

RESERVE PRICE

The auctioneers have not carried out valuations of any of the Lots in the auction. Consequently, you should not treat any reserve price that is published in respect of a Lot nor any estimate or suggestion as to the price for which a Lot may be sold or price that you might consider bidding for a Lot as being a valuation for that Lot. It is your responsibility to decide how much you should bid for any Lot.

The reserve price is the lowest price that the Vendor is prepared to accept for the property. If the bidding does not reach the reserve price the Vendor is not required to sell the property. The reserve price itself will not be disclosed.
